LATE RETURNS INDICATE THE VOTE ON CRABBE ACT AND THE FEDERAL PROHIBITION WILL BE VERY CLOSE

Both Wet and Dry Leaders Are Claiming Victory While Counting Proceeds at Slow Rate.

CRABBE PROPOSAL PROBABLY BEATEN

If Dry Lead in 33 Counties Still Out is Maintained Dry Proposals Carry.

Late Returns Favor Drys in the Ratification Proposal And Wets On Crabbe Act.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 6.—Returns from Tuesday's election, compiled at the Secretary of State's office today from 55 of the 88 counties, indicate that the results on the ratification of the federal prohibition amendment and the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill will be close, with chances favoring the drys on the ratification proposal and the wets on the Crabbe bill, according to Chief Statistician Johnson.

The same returns are said to indicate defeat of the 2.75 proposal and the repeal of the prohibition amendment.

These 55 counties, 33 of which are complete and 22 incomplete, give the wets a lead of 29,031 on ratification of the federal amendment and 52,410 on the Crabbe bill. They also gave the wets a lead of 22,999 on the 2.75 proposal and 12,323 on the repeal proposition.

The 33 counties still to report gave a dry majority of 33,795 for prohibition last year, and if this majority was maintained last Tuesday, it would indicate defeat of both the 2.75 and the repeal proposals by safe majorities, it is said.

On this showing, also, the ratification proposal would be approved by a small margin, it is said.

WHITE WILL NOT CONCEDE

Cincinnati, O., November 6.—L. H. Gibson, manager of the Ohio Home Rule Association, said early today that the Crabbe bill has been overwhelmingly defeated, that the ratification of the federal prohibition amendment appears to have been defeated and that the 2.75 percent beer proposal is in doubt.

OF ONCE PROUD AND MIGHTY GERMAN BATTLE FLEET, ONLY A HANDFUL OF THIRD-CLASS WARSHIPS REMAIN

Remnants of the German fleet in Kiel harbor.

Of the once proud and mighty German battle fleet, rated second in the world in 1914, there remains today but an insignificant fraction. This picture, which has just been received from Germany, shows the handful of third-class warships that the Germans still have in their possession. And even these they may have to give up, as the allies now propose to punish them for destroying the bulk of their fleet in Scapa Flow by taking the remainder of their fighting ships away.

Democratic Leaders Accept the Challenge of Senator Lodge And Move For Action.

Senate Takes Up Another Proposal And Ratification Vote Again Delayed.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, November 6.—An immediate vote on the ratification of the treaty of peace without reservation was proposed in the Senate today by Senator Underwood, democrat, of Alabama, after Republican Leader Lodge had challenged the administration to make such a move.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the administration leader, intervened before the question was put and a long argument followed.

Senator Hitchcock accepted the challenge of Senator Lodge and made a motion that the Senate ratify the treaty without reservation.

Instead of proceeding to vote on Senator Hitchcock's motion for unreserved ratification the Senate revived discussion on another proposal to report the treaty immediately from the committee of the whole in order to consider resolutions of ratification.

There was a wide difference of opinion as to what would be the status of the treaty should the resolution of ratification with reservations attacked be defeated.

AGNEW ADMITS PART IN THEFT OF AUTOMOBILE

Stands Accused of Theft of Ruth Waters' Car in This City Last Summer.

Confesses That He Wrote Mysterious Letter Which Figured in Trial.

The arrest of James Agnew, in this city Tuesday afternoon tightens the web of evidence about Omer Betts, much accused man of Chillicothe, and implicates Agnew seriously in the theft of the Ruth Waters automobile in this city, and the complicated muddle which has come to light with the arrest of Betts and his companion in Chillicothe, and subsequent arrest and rearrest of Betts on numerous charges.

Regarding the Agnew-Betts case the Chillicothe News says:

"The tightening web of circumstance drew still closer about Omer Betts Wednesday morning with the arrest of James N. Agnew, alias Joseph LaRue, the 'unlocatable' soldier from whom Betts claimed he had purchased many automobiles while 'La Rue' was a soldier at Camp Sherman. The arrest was made, strangely enough on a complaint filed by Betts against 'LaRue' shortly after Betts had been released here on bond after his first arrest.

It will be remembered that a letter addressed to Betts and signed by J. N. Agnew was introduced by the prosecution in Betts' recent trial here on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, it being alleged that Betts sold a stolen auto to N. A. Vaughn, knowing that the car had been stolen. The letter signed by Agnew, suggested that Betts and the writer ought to get into business together and that they might clean up big money. The letter hinted strongly that the business mentioned might be connected with automobiles. Betts testified that he did not know the writer.

"The similarity of names between Agnew and LaRue caused an investigation to be made. It was found that Agnew had been a Camp Sherman soldier discharged on September 29, 1919, and that he had then returned to his home in Steubenville, where the letter addressed by him to Betts had been written and mailed. On September 27, a Ford touring car belonging to Wallace Mechlin of Colliers, W. Va., was stolen in Steubenville, and Agnew simultaneously disappeared. He was traced from that city all over the state and was finally located Tuesday in Washington, C. H.

"When brought back to this city, Agnew admitted that he was 'Joseph LaRue' and that he had signed the bills of sale for the cars sold to Betts. He also admitted writing the questionable letter to Betts. Wednesday afternoon, when pressed by Detective Hammelback, Agnew told his story in all its details. The full confession has not been made public by the police, but is being investigated. In his confession, however, Agnew declared that the car stolen in Steubenville is now in the possession of a soldier in Camp Sherman. The car was located there by the police Wednesday afternoon and identified by Agnew as the one he had stolen. It was sold to a soldier named McAphee, of the school of cooks and bakers, about four weeks ago, and was found in his possession when recovered Wednesday.

"The complaint filed by Betts charged Agnew with selling Betts a Ford which had been stolen from Miss Ruth Waters of Washington, C. H. This car, after its sale to Betts was sold by the latter to the Patterson garage in Greenfield, and was recovered by Miss Waters there. Patterson was arrested at that time, but was later released.

"Agnew is a young man only 22 years of age and said to be of a good family."

TAXATION NOW FAVORITE THEME

With the defeat of the proposed classification of property for taxation a great deal of interest is being manifested in the next step toward changes in the tax laws of the state, and arguments are arising on all sides as to the propriety of various measures that might or might not bring the results desired.

It is expected that the Joint Taxation Committee of the Ohio Legislature, under the chairmanship of Senator Frank C. Parrett of this city, will soon assemble for preparing some recommendation to be presented when the legislature reconvenes next month to consider new taxing laws.

Receipts of cattle at Chicago for the first two days of the week were 51,000, as compared to 54,000 last week. The good to choice grades of fat cattle were steady with top at $19.50, other grades of fat steers being steady to a little lower.

Receipts included one of the heaviest supplies of stockers and feeders of the season. Many thousands of 500 to 1,100 pound cattle were on the market and quality was very good. We have an excellent selection in the real good grades in all the beef breeds of Short-horns, Herefords and Angus. A good supply of choice to fancy kinds with a heavy run of good grades and a very liberal supply of plain, fair and medium kinds in the lower priced classes of cattle.

Heavy receipts are expected for the entire week and we would advise the purchase of cattle at the present time while receipts are so liberal and selection so good and on the present break in prices.

Market steady with the close of last week and 25 to 50 cents lower than a week ago. Our purchases approximately 4,500 for Monday and Tuesday. Come to Chicago or send orders at once if ready for cattle.

Very truly yours,
JOHN J. LAWLER.

Gompers' Plan

For several days now it has been strongly intimated that Samuel Gompers, chief executive of the American Federation of Labor, would soon make public a proposal to settle the coal miners' strike.

Knowing Mr. Gompers' record and not in the least detracting from some of his very effective work during war time, we did not look forward to the coming of his announcement with any great hope that it would offer any fair way of settlement.

On Wednesday Mr. Gompers' statement was given to the public. It is simply that the federal government consent to the dissolution of the injunction, dismiss its action in the federal courts and then the miners will "negotiate" with the operators.

Mr. Gompers either wittingly or unwittingly, and it matters little which, has missed the big idea—the rights of the public and the government of the United States. Neither should be dictated to by any small minority of laborers, neither should be approached with the suggestion that only on the performance of a condition precedent will that minority even consider performing its duty to that society of which it is a part. The duty of every good citizen is to obey the government and be mindful of the rights of the majority as expressed in its legislative enactments and court decrees.

Mr. Gompers also loses sight of the fact that the miners themselves can secure a dissolution of the injunction and an end of the suit by returning to work as the rights of the public, as expressed in the order of the court, obtained on application of the government, demands that they do.

It seems incredible that Mr. Gompers should urge such a proposal seriously and the fact that he does, with the expectation that it will receive any serious consideration at all, is proof of just how far off the true track some Americans are wandering.

"Classification" Defeated

The tremendous majority registered at the polls on Tuesday against the proposal to amend the constitution of Ohio by giving to the legislature the power to classify all property for taxation purposes leaves no doubt as to opposition of Ohio voters to class legislation.

The result on Tuesday indicates that Ohioans believe that as all men are equally answerable for their conduct to organized society, so all property should bear, without distinction as to kind or ownership, its proper proportion of the burdens of taxation.

It means too that Ohio voters believe that the law making body of the state should march straight up to the problems which confront it and solve them without being afforded an avenue through which escape from, real or fancied, political dangers may be made.

The Red Cross

The Red Cross membership campaign is on. Only a few days remain now of the allotted time within which different sections of the nation must wheel into line with the full one hundred percent of their quota.

The Herald has stated that the people are weary of "drives" for funds and that they are excusable in not responding as liberally as they did not so many months ago.

But this Red Cross membership campaign is not a drive. The Red Cross is just like keeping up our home or our church. It is a necessary and enduring organization of mercy in which we are all individually vitally interested in times of peace as well as in times of war. It is a part of our national, our community and our home life. It is one of our permanent institutions which must be sustained.

This is not a new movement in any sense of the word. It is not a war or an after-the-war movement, although the work of mercy has been vastly increased by war. As long as men live there will be call for extending the helping hand.

The Red Cross is humanity's greatest agency for civilization, for humanity. It is the good Samaritan of modern times.

We must not default on our fixed charges for the Red Cross any more than on our household expense or on our church contributions.

The payment required of each individual is infinitesimal, but the grand total is the life blood of humanity. Its one of the great forces that makes the world fit to live in.

POETRY FOR TODAY

A PRAYER

Help me, oh God to live, I pray,
Through each dear moment, day by day,
The ideal life.
Not alone in high tide, 'midst the spray,
Where pressure lifts and bellows sway
But in the shallows, day by day,
Help me, oh God, to live, I pray
The ideal life.

The world is wide, the way is long,
We meet and pass as through the throng
We move,
Not what we do, or say, or seem to do
Other eyes;
Beneath the true condition underlies
To thee and self we are, to others may appear.
Help us, oh God, to hold pure and sincere
The inner life.

Gazing in wonder we admire
A vision wrought by painter's fire
Of heroic life.
We list enraptured to a song divine;
We kneel a captive at the sculptor's shrine;
More symbol of the higher life the highest art can give—
Help us, oh God, to turn away and live
The ideal life.

We met in concourse sweet and strong
United prayer and praise and song—
To worship Thee.
"Nothing in my hands I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling."
Sweeps the song's sincere appeal above the human sea.
Help us, oh God, to hide in true humility
Ourselves in thee.

—Kansas City Star.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. J. F. Witherspoon gave a very pretty birthday party, Wednesday afternoon at the close of school for her son, Bernard, who celebrated his tenth birthday.

The home, in Millwood was beautifully decorated in scarlet and white, with large white chrysanthemums effectively placed.

The children were given full sway and certainly had a royal good time, culminating in the serving of a luncheon of their favorite eatables. They were seated in the dining room at tables arranged in the form of a cross and exceedingly pretty, with ten scarlet candles burning on a big white birthday cake and scarlet favor baskets filled with popcorn and candies.

Mrs. Witherspoon was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mary Raley, Mrs. Frank Flee and Mrs. Homer Raley.

The guests were: Jean Tipton, Miriam Lynch, Prue Chapman Virginia Hyer, Norma Flee, Opal White, Dorothy Brown, Anna Lee Taylor, Sarah Steffy, Forest Fraser, Robert Flee, Robert Whiteside, Lowell Probasco, Kenneth Probasco, Robert Lansing, Warren Flee and Jack Witherspoon.

A greatly enjoyed dinner of Wednesday was entertained by Mrs. Dave Marine, of the Creek road, in honor of Mrs. Lyle Chaffin, of Lewisburg, Tenn.

In the gathering were five school mates together for the first time in forty years, and in their reunion interest centered.

An open fire added cheer to the parlors in which twenty-five gathered.

An advertisement contest was the chief diversion, Mrs. Ellis Bishop, Miss Ruth Teeters and Miss Ruth Kelly cut for the prize, and there was merriment galore when the winner, Miss Kelly, instead of receiving a trophy, was called upon to make a five minute suffrage speech and did it too, with quick wit and much cleverness.

There was Columbia music, light refreshments were served and marshmallows toasted. Button chrysanthemums were the favors.

The efficient committee in charge was composed of Misses Mary Cox, Marie Melvin, Nell Rowan, Mildred Kidd, Faye Jobe and Mrs. John Dial. Mrs. K. B. Alexander, daughter Elizabeth and Mrs. Charles Wagner (Jean Hollingsworth), of Tarentum, Pa., were guests.

A number of the women of the congregation found the afternoon one of much pleasure, to which chrysanthemums, prettily arranged, and a tempting refreshment contributed.

Mrs. A. M. Bush charmingly entertained her Bridge Club with a few additional guests, Thursday afternoon, in honor of her very attractive guest, Mrs. C. A. Kearns.

The game of progressive Bridge was stimulated by the accessory hospitalities and the afternoon was one of exceptional pleasure.

Roses and asters were artistically used in decoration and an elaborate collation served.

Mrs. A. R. Getty, of Meersville, was an out of town guest.

The Mt. Carmel Home Missionary Society held its annual all day Thank Offering meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Roy Sollars of the Glendon neighborhood.

The day was one of delightful reunion and sociability as well as inspiration to the work of missions.

There was a basket dinner at noon, with every thing delicious in the line of the picnic spread, and in the afternoon the President, Mrs. Albert Slagle took charge of the program.

Following responsive scripture reading Mrs. W. B. Rose led in prayer.

The program included, piano solo, Mrs. Mattie McCoy; reading, Mrs. Oscar Winkle; vocal duet, Mrs. J. Bruce Mark and Mrs. Paul Carman, accompanied by Mrs. Omar Schwartz; reading, Mrs. Jean Nisley; talk by Rev. Rose.

There was a gratifying Thank Offering.

What Our Guarantee Means to You

Every job of repairing we send out is fully guaranteed; it must prove satisfactory before we are satisfied.

Makes no difference what it is, how difficult it may be, or how impossible it may appear, if we accept your battery for repair, we guarantee the work, that is, it must give a definite period of service (8 months). We are all human, and fail occasionally, and in case our work does not "stay put" for eight months, you are entitled to bring it back for an adjustment.

That is why we say: "The longer we make your present battery last, the surer we are of eventually selling you a new one."

SCHOOL CHILDREN WORKING HARD FOR RED CROSS

School children, the members of the High School, have been hard at work during the week in an effort to raise the money for the Red Cross subscription of the Third Roll call.

In the rural schools every child has had part in the work and the greater part of the territory has been covered. In some instances the youngsters have not met with very ready responses and it has been hard pulling to bring the number of enrollments up to the required number. In other instances the response has been prompt and satisfactory.

In this city the streets have been divided among the members of the High School who have worked each evening after school and where the territory to be covered has been large the pupil has been excused from regular duties for the work.

Full reports of the number of enrollments secured and the amount of money raised will soon be available.

SICK FARMER IS MADE HAPPY

Wednesday of this week Earnest Justice, Pickaway county farmer who has been ill for sometime, was made very happy when members of the K. of P. lodge of which he is a member, assembled and hiked and cribbed a large amount of his corn.

In addition to doing the sick man's work for him, the members made the day one of much sport in husking and cribbing contests.
